Planning and Delivering A Lesson by Participants
Module Name	Staff Development Program 2020
Date	15th January 2020 Time 12.05 PM - 12.35 PM
Location	Through the Zoom online platform
Lecture topic	Design the basic UI of a web page
Number of participants	33 Participants
Allocated time	20 minutes delivery time and 10 minutes question and answer session.
Multimedia/Other	Laptop, Sounds, Handouts
Aims	To introduce the web development process and design wireframes for a website.
Outcome	By the end of this session, you will be able to: 1. Explain the web development process 2. Identify main sections of a web page 3. Design a wireframe of a webpage

Session	Content and Learning Task	Time	Special Resource Needed
Session 01 – Introduction to websites	Summarize the aims of the lesson. What is a website? • Introduce the term "website" • Common examples for websites • Webpages Vs website	2 minutes	PowerPoint presentation
Session 02 - Web Development Process	Introduce web development process	2 minutes	YouTube
Session 03 - Sections of a web page	Identify sections of a web page • Types of content	1 minutes	PowerPoint presentation
Session 04 - Design a wireframe of the page	Design a wireframe of the page • Introduce the online tool to design wireframes • Demonstrate how to draw a wireframe • Ask the participants to design their own wireframe	12 minutes	Access to "mockflow.com"
Conclusion	Summarize the session • Give homework • Give a clue about the next session	3 mins	PowerPoint presentation and handouts
Q&A Session	Question and answer session	10 minutes	